

AWAKENING GLOBAL ACTION

Optional Practicum & Workshop Sessions • August 4 and August 5, 2007

August 4-5 are practicum days for attendees to explore a wide choice of experiences that will bring them deeper into what has called them to Bali. Registration for these sessions will be August 1-3 at Bali Classic Center registration area. Please register early as some sessions have limited seating capacities. Locations will be announced later.

August 4 (Saturday) Morning Sessions 9:00 am-12:00 pm

A.1 Global Youth in Action Facilitated by Ryan Feinstein and friends.

Join global young emerging leaders in this interactive and engaging dialogue about how the younger generation can use collaboration and creativity to mobilize and strengthen the youth movement. Leave with an array of insights about how to move forward with powerful leadership skills and how to use them to empower your peers.

A.2 Architecture, Community & Balinese Culture Presented by Prince Tjokorda Gde Raka Sukawati

Enjoy a morning at the Royal Pita Maha and discover how decisions are made to create such a beautiful facility. You will learn about Balinese architecture and the role Balinese culture plays in design, building, sacred space, and community life. Tour the Prince's woodcarving area and other special experiences.

A.3 Story as Healer Presented by Patricia McCabe

We will be using the ancient practice of the Talking Circle as done with several different indigenous peoples of North America. This session will use ritual for spiritual informing along with personal storytelling to explore the concerns/solutions of our time and tasks that are being generated for each of us as the purpose of the Awakening Global Action gathering unfolds.

A.4 Generative & Authentic Leadership for Transformative Action Presented by Isabelle St-Jean

This experiential workshop will identify specific mindsets, trends and attitudes that have been undermining evolutionary changes in the educational, social and political spheres. Learn what it means to be authentic in leadership including the 5 dynamic energies/ archetypes and their corresponding challenges. Discover how to ground your insights, learning and intentions into a specific plan of action. Fee: $7 (includes lunch)

A.5 Sustainable Culture Through New Tourism Leadership Presented by Agung Raka Dalem

Tourism has become a major source of income for the Balinese, and yet it also creates major environmental and social problems. Discover how the Balinese are developing ways to generate a sustainable tourism that supports indigenous Balinese values and empowers local communities. Learn about the Balinese life philosophy and new training programs that help preserve their ancient culture.

A.6 Building a New World of Business Presented by Linda Dunkel

Amidst a global expansion of corporations and businesses, one of the most significant movements in commerce is the new focus on what has been called the "triple bottom line"—referring to the three areas of people, profit and planet. This workshop will explore how "for profit" organizations can and are working in new and creative ways to promote both social purpose and financial promise. We'll focus on the possibilities and examine how each of us can be a part of this growing movement to harness capitalism and be a part of the new paradigm for doing well and doing good together. Fee: $20 (includes snacks)

A.7 Morning Yoga Intensive Teacher: Rosey Kobliska-Becker

Take a relaxing morning yoga class offering a gentle way to integrate and embody your experiences at the Gathering. Reconnect with your body and inner guide. Rosey brings a special blend of east and west to her classes, creating a safe space that allows students to quiet their minds, open their hearts, and listen. Fee: $25

A.8 Golden Hour with Agung Rai SPECIAL TIME 6:00 am-10:00 am

Spend a fascinating early morning sunrise with Agung Rai, the founder/owner of ARMA Museum and a master historian of Balinese culture and spiritual sites. Visit remote temples and newly-discovered sites not available for tourists. Trip will include meditation, wonderful breakfast and a visit to a traditional market. Fee: $25

Afternoon Sessions 2:00 pm-5:00 pm

B.1 Balinese Health Clinic Field Trip Presented by Bobbi Aqua

Visit one of Bali's most inspiring free health care centers in Ubud. Hear how to take one's passion into action, and the impact it can have in medical services for local families in Bali. Visit this unique health clinic and explore the challenges and rewards of working in health services in a developing country.

B.2 Moral Courage—Our Values in Action Presented by Donald Proffit

Moral courage is the willing endurance of significant danger for the sake of principle. Based on Rush Kidder's book, Moral Courage, the work of the Institute for Global Ethics, and the presenter's own rich background as an Ethical Literacy Coach and former high school principal, explore the differences between moral and physical courage, gain awareness of shared global values, share personal stories and nurture moral courage in others and ourselves.

B.3 Breath of Hope: Moving from Vision to Action:

A World Educational Movement for Global Activism Presented by Therese Poulsen

What creates health for the individual is the same as what creates leadership—in awakening to the deeper path of self, we discover our fullest potential to serve our true purpose, to serve our communities, to serve our environment and greater society for peace. Learn how to nurture a vision from an idea into an evolutionary movement, and how you can transform your energy into action in the world.

B.4 Spoken Word as Activism Presented by Lyla Johnston

Poetry presides over the realms that logic will never know—the realm of the human heart. The language of the inspired and passionate heart, powerful as the ocean and pliant as the stream, has been present at every turning of the tide. This workshop explores finding that voice and brainstorming its many uses in a community near you!

B.5 Re-imagined Mythology as Spiritual Autobiography Presented by Luisah Teisch

In every culture there is a body of myths and legends that reflect the beliefs of our ancestors. Personal myths and stories impact how we define ourselves—shaping our self-image, influencing choices and guiding actions. In this workshop we will re-examine our cultural myths and personal stories, and re-imagine them in the context of a world that together we can create. Bring an object for the altar, paper, pen, drawing materials.

B.6 Cultivating Your Leadership Presence Presented by Madé Janur Yasa and Robyn McCulloch

How can we mobilize people to take personal action toward what we care about for global impact? As leaders, how do we sustain the energy required to live out our passion for social, political, environmental, and educational justice? We will access the wisdom of the body to heighten awareness of your own leadership presence. Learn to mobilize others and engage in practices that allow you to flourish.

B.7 Balinese Mysticism Led by Agung Rai SPECIAL TIME 5:00 pm-7:30 pm

Join Agung Rai, the founder/owner of ARMA Museum and master historian of Balinese culture and spirituality, as he takes you to a gorgeous temple overlooking the whole island for meditation and dialogue. This is a ONCE-IN-A-LIFE-TIME opportunity! Fee: $15 (for transportation and snacks)

Full Day Session/Activities 9:00 am-5:00 pm

C.1 Deep Ecology and the Environment Presented by Agung Prana

Spend an exciting day with an award-winning Balinese environmentalist who is on the frontlines of guiding environmental changes in Bali. Hear about the challenges of cultural shifts that need to happen to support new environmental regulations, and explore some of the sites helping to create sustainability in farming and recycling.

Fee: $25 (includes lunch and transportation)
